

THE KANSAS CITY
ARCHITECTURAL FOUNDATION

PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
August 16, 2017

Contact: Kristen DaMetz
Communications Director
AIA Kansas City
816.221.3485
Kristen@aiakc.org

Local architectural students awarded $22,000 in scholarships

Kansas City, Missouri - The Kansas City Architectural Foundation (KCAF) and the American Institute of Architects – Kansas City is pleased to announce that six outstanding students have been selected as recipients of the 2017 - 2018 scholarship. A total of $22,000 in scholarships was awarded for the 2017 - 2018 school year, in addition to a $1,000 National American Institute of Architects Award. The KCAF Scholarships are awarded each year to deserving students from the greater Kansas City metropolitan area, who will be or currently attend an accredited architectural school. Selection criteria include demonstrated financial need, academic performance, letters of recommendation, and answers to short essay. The recipients will be honored at a special reception on the 15th of August.

We are pleased to award scholarships to the following students:

The Kivett Scholarship is awarded to:

Tom Pulliam – University of Missouri – Kansas City

The Kratz Scholarship is awarded to:

Samantha Davis – University of Missouri – Kansas City

The Peggy and Frank Zilm is awarded to:

Sekou Hayes – University of Kansas

The Kent Spreckelmeyer Scholarship is awarded to:

Natalie Claerhout – University of Kansas

The Women in Design – Kansas City Scholarship is awarded to:

Anna Collins – University of Kansas

The AIA Kansas City Scholarship in conjunction with AIA National is awarded to:

Clair Reid – Kansas State University

The Clarence Kivett Scholarship was established in 2012. Clarence was a founding principal of Kivett & Myers architecture firm.

The Kratz Scholarship was established to honor the legacy of Edwin and Edith Kratz, lifelong residents of Missouri. Edwin was a licensed architect who worked as the Chief Architect and Chief Underwriter for the Federal Housing Administration in Kansas City. Both Edwin and Edith had a passion about the importance of education and a personal commitment to continue to learn and expand their own knowledge as well as encouraging other to do so.

Peggy and Frank Zilm and Spreckelmeyer Scholarship established two scholarships to honor young and deserving architectural students the first named The Peggy and Frank Zilm Scholarship' and the second to honor Kent Spreckelmeyer a professor at the University of Kansas for his strong commitment to mentoring students named as The Kent Spreckelmeyer Scholarship'. The Professor Kent Spreckelmeyer Scholarship was established to award to a deserving student attending the University of Kansas.

The Women in Design – Kansas City Scholarship was established in 2011 by the Women in Design – Kansas City organization. This scholarship was established to help support women seeking degrees in design professions from Kansas and Missouri.

The Kansas City Architectural Foundation is a charitable corporation (501(c) (3)) established in 1984 through the leadership of the American Institute of Architects (AIA) Kansas City Chapter.

The Kansas City Architectural Foundation educates individuals and communities about the power of architecture to transform lives and improve the places where we live, learn, work, and play. Through our outreach programs, grants, scholarships and educational resources, KCAF inspires people to become thoughtful and engaged stewards of the built environment. To learn more about the Foundation please our website at <http://www.aiakc.org/about/kansas-city-architectural-foundation>.

For more information please contact The Kansas City Architectural Foundation c/o Dawn Taylor, Executive Director of the American Institute of Architects Kansas City Chapter, 816-221-3485 for information concerning these scholarships and applications.

###